

The Cybebullying

The cyberbullying is when you trash talk a person on social media

You ought to speak with your family.

You should not to insult other person.

You ought to keep your information private.

The consequence of the bullying on kids is not just physical, like hitting or kicking someone, or talking their things without permission.

If you bully a people you can stop because the person can commit suicide.